The Child and the Bee.

Charity is a naked child, giving money to a bee without wings; naked, because excuseless and simple; a child, because tender and growing; giving honey, because honey is pleasant and comfortable; to a bee, because a bee is laborious and deserving; without wings, because helpless and wanting. If thou deniest to such, thou killest a bee; if thou givest to other than such, thou preservest a drone.—Quarles: Enchiridion.

Great State Is Texas.

Texas reaches from snow to summer, from snow to strawberries, from ice to ice cream, from skates to juleps. Because a train became stalled by snow in one part of Texas do not forget that on the same day wanderers from the frozen north were eating strawberry shortcake and cream at five a throw and yard eggs at fifteen a dozen in heavenly Houston.—Houston Post.

Primitive Burmese Customs.

In Burmah girls are privileged to do the wooing and men must always wait for them to take the initiative. Courtship and marriage are very simple in Burmah. When a girl sees a man she thinks will make her a good husband she offers him a stick of sweetmeat. If he accepts her he eats the sweet and they are then and there considered man and wife.

Unique Lighthouse.

Lighthouse keeping from the main land is possible in the case of a new light house on the coast of Guernsey, one of the Channel Islands. The lighthouse contains a powerful fog siren, as well as an acetylene light, and the lighthouse keepers are stationed at the electrical plant on the shore, more than a mile distant.

American Brains in Demand.

An American has been engaged by the state of Victoria to push the manufacture of beet sugar. The same state has given an American company a $130,000 contract for an electric plant at the township recently founded at the state coal mine.

Wasted.

"It costs him ten thousand dollars a year to live," said Mr. Jones, referring to an acquaintance, and his companion, according to a writer in Life, asks: "Why does he spend his money so foolishly?"

Tons of Hair Clippings.

The barbers of Europe collect a crop of 1,200,000 pounds of hair annually.

Criminal Instinct.

Crimes lead into one another. They are capable of being forgery are capable of being incendiaries.—Burke

The White Mavis.

A white mavis has been seen in the woods at Glen Tower, Dunoon. This albino stranger is looked at askance by the other birds, who hop round it at a safe distance, as if he were a dangerous foreigner to be avoided.

Good Arithmetic; Bad Morals.

An expert tells us that it costs a single man in Boston $833 a year to live. Evidently it costs a man $1,675 a year to lead a double life in Boston.

Bachelor's Misfortune.

It is the misfortune of the bachelor that he has no one to tell him frankly his faults; but the husband has this happiness.

Ancient City of Arizona.

Evidences of a city in Arizona have been discovered which seem to indicate that the town flourished ten thousand years ago.

Phonograph's Popularity.

The exports of phonographs and records from the United States have doubled in two years.

Measures Heat Radiation.

An instrument for measuring the nocturnal terrestrial radiation of heat has been invented by a Danish scientist.

For a nice pork, veal, lamb or beef roast, call phone 85 or 100, Greenwade's.

Emotions in the Sexes.

The old notion that women are more emotional than men has been discredited by a celebrated authority of Europe.

Fools.

One rocked the boat, one didn't know the gun was loaded, one touched his cigar to a celluloid collar, but the chiefest of them played poker in a gentleman's game.—Judge.

Let us sell you your gasoline. Phone No. 2.

Natural Question.

"He was one of their most reliable and trustworthy employees." "What's the matter, is he dead or just absconded?"

Nova Scotia's Boast.

The province of Nova Scotia has built more permanent bridges than all the other provinces of Canada, says the Nova Scotia bridge commissioner.

Wedding Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wade announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Russia Gay Wade to Mr. Theodore Herman Staggs wedding to take place at N. Middletown Christian Church August 21, 1911, at seven forty-five p. m.

MISS RUSSIA GAY WADE.

Miss Wade is the daughter of Jas. E. Wade, of Donaldson, Ky., one of the most practical farmers of Clark county. Miss Wade has been engaged in the mercantile business for the last two years, which has been successful.

MR. THEODORE HERMAN STAGGS.

T. H. Staggs is the son of W. P. Staggs, of Side View, Ky., who has been engaged in the lightning conductor business most of his life. Herman Staggs says his college "is a commercial foot racer. Actor, reader, poet and orator, believes in a strenuous life." Has been a successful choice meat dealer for the last eight years; also farmer and stock raiser. The expression on Staggs' face relates a happy past and a confident future.

Best Farm in the South

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

No other investment equal to it at this time. 1300 acres—750 acres in cultivation. Balance in good merchantable timber.

On these lands are 7 houses and barns and two Steamboat landings. They are 2½ miles from railroad station. Land all level, rich, river bottom. Fine cane brake. This plantation made 300 bales of cotton and 10,000 bushels of corn in one year and can do it again. Figure the year out, put 300 bales of cotton at $50 each $24,000 00 Cotton seed $10 from each bale 3,000 00 10,000 bushels corn, 60¢ bu. 6,000 00

Making a total in one year of $33,000 00

To this add second crops and enough could be made in one year to pay for the entire farm, and with the entire farm in cultivation it would realize far more. Price, $30 per acre. Apply at this office. 48tf
